CASTING LOTS

Numbers 26:54–56

To a large tribe you shall give a larger inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a smaller inheritance. Each shall be given its inheritance according to those who were numbered of them. But the land shall be divided by lot; they shall inherit according to the names of the tribes of their fathers. According to the lot their inheritance shall be divided between the larger and the smaller.

MANSLAYER

God would teach us to conceive a dread and horror of the guilt of blood, and to be very careful of life, and always afraid lest by oversight or negligence we occasion the death of any. Matthew Henry

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

MANSLAYER

The death of the high priest must have symbolized a cancellation or remission of the manslayer's sin.

The high priest was to be looked upon as so great a blessing to his country that when he died their sorrow upon that occasion should swallow up all other resentments. Matthew Henry

Psalm 46:1

God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.
